In anticipation of hearing some racy campaign talk, a number of local politicians are going up for the meet.

Mr. Holland has taken the lead in the matter of joint debates on the issue of the joint debate before the voters of the district, and then to abide by their decision at the polls.

Next week it is expected that a second debate, in which all four of the candidates will be present, will be pulled off in Norfolk at a meeting of the Seventh Ward Democratic Club. A movement is now on foot to get this meeting in a central part of the city, at one of the opera-houses, in order that a larger number may hear the candidates. It is probable that the meeting will be arranged for Saturday night week.

The report will not down despite the assurance of all the candidates to the contrary, that one of the men in the race will withdraw before election, in order to throw his strength in a certain direction.

Mr. Burke tendered his resignation in the interim of a meeting of Council, thus leaving a vacancy in the position to which he has been elected. He is now employed in the general offices of the Southern Railway in Washington, and had formerly been with the Atlantic Coast Line at Wilmington, and with the Associated Railways of Virginia. In the offices at Richmond, he will take charge of the traffic bureau at Petersburg on the 15th of August.

GOVERNOR SHOULD HAVE $10,000

Mr. Kerr Urging That Salary of Chief Executive of North Carolina Be Increased.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., August 2.—Mr. J. P. Kerr, who managed the campaign of Hon. Leno C. Craik for the Democratic nomination for Governor, which was won by Hon. W. W. Kitchin, after the memorable contest of the Charlotte convention, is out in a card urging that North Carolina should increase the pay of her Governor to a sum more commensurate with the dignity and importance of the office, it being now only $15,000, while the North Carolina members in Congress receive $7,500. Mr. Kerr insists that there is not a man in the State fit to be Governor who is earning as little as the State pays her chief executive. He insists that the incoming Governor should receive $10,000 and appeals to the people to send to the Legislature men who will make this increase before the next Governor is inaugurated. Sentiment here is decidedly in accord with the contention of Mr. Kerr. However, few anticipate that the increase will be made as he suggests.
